The statistical tables are just as they came from the Statistical Secretaries. Treasurers of Boards may find minor discrepancies between these tables and monies turned in to them. Sometimes money is handed to Treasurers after reports are filed with Statistical Secretaries. Corrections after Conference are not practicable by the already overworked Secretary. The Treasurers' figures really ought to make up the tables. Maybe we can arrange for this hereafter. Any serious discrepancies can be corrected through the MIDLAND METHODIST.

The picture of Mrs. Chrismond reached the Secretary one day too late to appear on the memorial page.

The price of the Annual is 25 cents per copy, by authority of the Holston Conference. The edition consists of 4,000 copies—the largest of our history. Preachers will remit to the Secretary at Nashville as soon as copies are sold, and order more, if desired.

A COMPARISON.

Methodism was organized in America in 1784. The Baptists came in 1639; the Congregationalists in 1648; the Lutherans and Episcopalians began with the settlement of America; the Presbyterians came in 1703. From this it will be seen that the Methodist Church is the youngest in the country; 145 years younger than the Baptist, eighty-one years younger than the Presbyterian, 136 years younger than the Congregationalist. The following (latest) statistics of the denominational strength in the United States show how our church has grown:

Methodist .....	6,256,738
Baptist .....	5,150,815
Lutheran .....	1,789,766
Presbyterian .....	1,697,697
Episcopal .....	807,924

REPORTS.—The committee on Books and Periodicals made report, which was discussed by G. R. Stuart, T. C. Schuler, F. Richardson, J. E. Naff, J. T. Frazier, J. R. Brown, D. Sullins and J. D. McAlister, and was then adopted. See supplement "D."

ADMITTED.—Question 1.—"Who are admitted on trial?" Rhemus H. Alderman, having been recommended by the Big Stone Gap District Conference, and having passed the required examination, was admitted into the traveling connection on trial.

CONFERENCE RELATIONS.—The committee on Conference Relations made the following report which was adopted:

There is no more honorable place held by man, than that of a superannuate. These men who are worn out in the itinerant service deserve the highest honor, and our sincere affections. The majority of them have sacrificed every worldly ambition. They have endured hardness like good soldiers.

The more honorable a place is, the more carefully should we guard its entrance. We should consider well those we admit into full connection.

We should not hastily demand of our older men, that they retire from the effective list, but, with tender solicitude provide light work for them, and let the church profit by their mature judgment and long experience.

One superannuate, Jas. Mahoney, and one supernumerary, J. B. Davis, have died during the year.

We recommend the following persons for superannuated relations: M. L. Clendenen, J. C. Maness, J. H. Brunner, J. R. Payne, L. C. Delashmit, Jacob Smith, A. D. Stewart, L. K. Haynes, W. H. Kelley, C. Barnett, W. D. Mitchell, J. M. Wolfe, W. C. Carden, J. A. Darr, J. A. Duvall, D. H. Carr, J. P. Dickey, J. C. Runyan, W. C. Faris.

DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS.

Your committee on District Conference Records submit their report as follows:

Records Present—Radford, Tazewell, Wytheville, Abingdon, Big Stone Gap, Morristown, Knoxville. Spring City and Chattanooga. Record absent—Cleveland.

The Radford District Conference Record presents good form and neatness, showing improvement over last year.

The Tazewell District Conference Record is well kept, and well arranged, being a model of neatness.

The Wytheville District Conference Record shows haste and careless penmanship. The secretary signed the Presiding Elder's name. The usual record is given, but more care should be taken in recording it.

The Abingdon District Conference Record is well written and in good taste and form.

The Big Stone Gap District Conference Record is in good general condition, but in some places the secretary seemed to crowd space in writing.

The Morristown District Conference Record is neat and in good form, but the different articles should be separated by ruled lines rather than flourishes, as Record matter.

The Knoxville District Conference Record has blots on its pages and the margin is irregular and too wide on right side of pages.

The Spring City District Conference Record is very plainly written and is generally neat, but there is room for improvement and neatness, though it is well kept.

The Chattanooga District Conference Record is kept in due form. The hour of the opening is omitted. The supplements do not show the subject. The label does not show the name of the district. The margin is too narrow.

Proper margins and lines ruled with red ink, sub-dividing margins, subject matter, and articles, looking to a more complete form of Record improvement is recommended. Each supplement of committee reports should show the subject of the report as well as the supplement, and every page of the Record should be dated as provided for at head of each page.

SPIRITUAL STATE OF THE CHURCH.

Our mission, as a Conference is to save men from their sins. For this purpose we were organized, and to this end we labor. Other things are subservient to this, and will pass with their using. We would not depreciate in the least, the material side, for we believe that if we, as a people, would bring all the tithes into God's great store house, He would pour us out such a blessing as we would not be able to contain; still too much stress cannot be placed on getting the people soundly converted and keeping them close to Christ. If we are to leave behind us, when we are gone, a lasting impression for good—if we are to "shine as the stars of heaven," in the eternity to which we are fast hastening—it will come as a result of the fact that we have turned many to righteousness by the faithful preaching of the word, and following closely in the footsteps of Jesus.

It is therefore, with profound gratitude to God, that we are able, after carefully listening to the reports of the preachers, to make this, an encouraging report. With comparatively few exceptions, the charges have had conversions aggregating something near ten thousand (possibly more than this), thereby verifying unto us the saying of our distinguished founder, "that the best of all is God is with us."

Perhaps there has not been a time in our history, when the leadings of the Spirit were seen and felt in the Sabbath School work, more than today; for many are being led by its influence to Christ.

The Epworth Leagues and the Women's Missionary Societies are contributing quite a little in the way of helping along this great work, and we trust the day will not come when any spiritual interest will wane in any sense, but that it will continue to grow until the kingdoms of this world shall become the kingdoms of our Lord and of His Christ.

Resolved, That, God helping us, we will labor earnestly during the coming year to have a greater number of conversions and to get our people into closer relations with Jesus.

E. M. PIPPIN, Secretary.

G. W. JACKSON, Chairman.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL.

If nineteen hundred years of ecclesiastical history teaches one thing more clearly than another, it is this, the utter hopelessness of world-wide salvation, if the Church shall be content to assume the relation of stepmother to adult converts and refuse acceptance of the functions, responsibilities and privileges of true motherhood in the family of God on earth. That the Church is at last awakening to the fact that every child born of a woman has a birth right interest in the kingdom of God by virtue of its redemption by Christ, and that this conception is being realized as the great fundamental principle of her being, is matter of profound thanksgiving to God on the part of many who have prayed and labored for the emancipation of childhood from the woes of spiritual orphanage. To the Methodist Episcopal Church belongs the honor of having thrown its doors wide open to the children and of extending to them a whole-hearted welcome to its sheltering arms. This is the unequivocal declaration of its book of Discipline: "We hold that all children, by virtue of the unconditional benefits of the atonement are members of the kingdom of God, and, therefore, graciously entitled to baptism." So unto that communion there is in childhood "neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free; but Christ is all, and in all."

Herein is enunciated the doctrine of prepossession as against that of re-possession. Not the merciless thrusting out of our Lord's whole hundred into the wilderness of sin, but the so loving and so caring for them all that if but one be gone astray the ninety and nine may be safely left in the shelter of the fold, while the conversion of that one to its former security is anxiously sought. But note that aminous saying of our Lord: "And if so be that he find it"—that lost one. No wonder that there is a voice heard—lamentation, and weeping, and great mourning, Rachel weeping for her children, and refusing to be comforted because they are not in the fold of faith, but bewailed as dead—in trespass and in sins.

The flush of the gladdest day that ever dawned upon redeemed humanity has for its harbinger the morning star of the motherhood of the Church pre-saging the glorious sunburst of the fatherhood of God and the brotherhood of man, unto the whole round world.

We rejoice in the grace bestowed upon the Holston Conference in that it stands in the very forefront of those who have gathered the children under the protecting wing of love so that instead of 1,100,000, there will be 1,600,000 in Southern Methodist Sunday schools when our sister Conferences shall fall into line with us.

We rejoice in the glorious gospel of childhood salvation that our Sunday school editor is preaching; in the superior quality of literature which he is furnishing; and in the well grounded hope of enlarged facilities for the better equipment of our schools. Confessing our sins of neglect as regards our ministry to the children whom God hath given us, imploring His forgiveness and sanctifying ourselves afresh to this the most hopeful and blessed work ever committed to human hands, we covenant together.

1. That we will diligently instruct and exhort all parents to dedicate their children to the Lord in baptism as early as convenient; will endeavor to have baptized children faithfully instructed in the nature, design, privileges and obligations of their baptism, and as soon as such children comprehend the responsibilities involved in a public profession of faith in Christ and give evidence of a sincere determination to discharge the same, we will see that they be duly recognized as members of the Church, agreeably to the provisions of the Discipline.

2. That as pastors we will study to show ourselves approved unto God, not only in the pulpit, but also as efficient leaders of our forces in modern forms of Sunday school work; and that we will not only seek to secure the attendance of children at the preaching service, but will strive to hold them by proper adaptation of our discourse to their needs.

3. That we will endeavor to secure the betterment of our schools in the matter of equipment, organization, management and instruction, discouraging the use of current helps in the school room and encouraging familiarity with and the use of the Bible by officers, teachers and scholars.

4. That we will, wherever it is possible, establish organized adult classes and in every school a home department.

5. That we will bring to the attention of our schools and emphasize the importance of the various great interests of the Church and by suitable observance of specially appointed occasions, will try to bring our young people into sympathetic touch with all the forward movements of the Church.

6. That we will stand by our young people in the maintenance of their right to Sunday school privileges the year round.

JOHN C. ORR, President.

BOOKS AND PERIODICALS.

Your committee on Books and Periodicals submit the following report:

We are pleased to see in the report of our Publishing Agents, that our Publishing House is in a flourishing condition, constantly bringing out new books which are being placed in the hands of our people. We are also pleased to note a general improvement in the circulation of the official periodicals of our Church.

The "Review," under the editorial management of Dr. Gross Alexander, has been continued on the high plane where it was placed by the late Bishop Tigert, and is increasing in popularity. It should be in the hands of every preacher, and many of the laymen of the Church.

The "Christian Advocate," which is in a special sense our official organ, has been greatly improved, both in its appearance and subject matter. It is our opinion that the paper has never been better than at the present time; we are sorry that the subscription list has not grown faster. We earnestly urge that as preachers we put forth a greater effort to increase the circulation of our official organ.

The "Epworth Era," under the able editorship of Dr. H. M. DuBose, is of great value in strengthening our organized societies among the young people, and as the exponent of an exceptional ideal of social and intellectual life in the Church. We are sorry to note that it has not been self-sustaining because of the losses sustained by delinquent subscriptions. As pastors here is the opportunity for us to help this valuable publication by supervising the clubs or individual subscribers in our respective charges.

The Sunday School literature still maintains its high rank and its popularity. It is constantly being improved in various ways, and we are confident, that for our people especially, there is no better Sunday school literature published anywhere.

We are pleased to hear that our Conference organ, The "Midland Methodist," under the able management of Dr. J. A. Burrow, has increased its subscription list from 4,000 to 7,000, and is now on a paying basis. We respectfully request the Bishop to appoint Rev. T. C. Schuler to the editorship of our Conference organ, and also, earnestly insist that every one rally to the assistance of our new editor in helping to give us a valuable paper.

We heartily commend the two volumes of Holston History by Dr. R. N. Price, and suggest that we use every means possible to sell these volumes and thereby make it possible to bring out the third volume in the near future.

We respectfully ask the appointment of Dr. J. W. Perry, Dr. Eugene Blake and Hon. Creed F. Bates as our publishing committee.

J. E. LOWRY, Chairman.

TEMPERANCE.

The tremendous advancement of the temperance hosts and the signal victories of the past year over the legalized liquor traffic call for profound gratitude to Almighty God. We have now within the United States of America, five prohibition states. Five or six more are almost so, and several others are sturdily fighting toward that goal. More than half of our own territory, and not less than thirty-five millions of our people are under laws prohibiting the sale of intoxicating liquors. Holston Conference territory almost sees the day of its entire deliverance from this infamous thing. Two places in East Tennessee—Chattanooga and LaFollette; three in Virginia—Abingdon, Pulaski and Pocahontas; with our two towns in West Virginia will, after November, 1, 1907, be the extent of this legalized crime in Holston. We are girding up our loins to thrash it out of these places also.

The question with us will, it now seems, soon be one of law enforcement alone. This is a serious problem and we need so to understand. We offer the following resolutions:

First. That we again commit ourselves to stern and unrelenting warfare against the manufacture and sale of intoxicating beverages—even unto their utter and entire destruction.

Second. That the saloon has no right in law, except as the people, through their suffrage and officers, grant it the privilege of existence. It is a fair conclusion that the responsibility for this awful curse rests upon the voters of our country.

Third. That as the law enforcement period is a most critical one, we most earnestly urge our people to sink all political differences in the election of legislators who will give us adequate statutory legislation, and of officers who will strictly enforce the laws enacted, so that the expressed will of the people for the suppression and destruction of this crime may be secured.

Fourth. That we recognize in the Anti-Saloon League of America a most practical and efficient means offered to the church for the annihilation of the traffic in intoxicating liquor, and we earnestly recommend to our preachers and churches that they give to the officers and workers of the League a welcome hearing at least once each year and accord the work a generous support.

Fifth. We call attention to the action of the General Conference, and to former resolutions of this Conference concerning the tobacco habit and beg the preachers and people to govern themselves accordingly.

Sixth. We recommend that Rev. J. D. McAlister be appointed as a field secretary for the Virginia Anti-Saloon League.

J. D. MCALISTER, Chairman.

BOARD OF CHURCH EXTENSION.

Your Board is glad to report a healthy condition in the church building interests of the Conference. New churches have sprung up in every part of our Conference. Not only is the number of new churches a matter of encouragement, but the style of architecture and the convenience of these houses of worship are also evidences of our intelligent zeal in the Master's cause. ## BIBLE BOARD.

We recognize the greatness and importance of the work done by the American Bible Society, and realize that the largest results can be reached only by the earnest co-operation of the churches in this work. We therefore assure the Society of our willingness to contribute to its support. We feel the need of some systematic method of distributing the Bible, especially in destitute places in our Conference territory, and pledge ourselves to co-operate with the Society in the establishment of any method that promises success. We would urge our brethren of the Conference to bring the importance of this work before the people and take the collection for it promptly and in full.

EPWORTH LEAGUE BOARD.

We rejoice to note the good work done by the Epworth League during the past year. The character of the work is strong and abiding. We now have 67 Senior Leagues and 77 Junior Leagues, with a total membership of 5,591. Our Leagues have raised for all purposes $3,644. Consider the prosperity of our time, together with the willingness of our young people to contribute, we believe that the Leagues of Holston would raise a much larger amount if they had a definite object to which their energies are directed. To this end it is hoped that the next Epworth League Conference at Harriman, Tenn., will take special action toward preparing and maintaining a missionary to labor among the foreigners now in our midst.

We suggest that the resolution of last year's report be continued: "Resolved, That the Holston Conference set apart the second Sunday night in February as League evening, to be devoted to the Senior and Junior Leagues, a free will offering to be taken for the support of the Epworth League Conference, provided that any surplus accruing from this movement go to the cause of foreign missions, looking to the support of a league missionary in the near future."

We recommend that each pastor read the Epworth Era, and appoint an agent in every class for this excellent periodical; further, that each pastor send the name of the best leader in his flock to Edward F. Cook, Nashville, Tenn., for helps and instruction in forming and teaching mission study classes.

In view of the fact that leagues in some places are not making progress in the study of literature, and that all our leagues need a system of study and instruction, be it therefore urged that every league as far as possible adhere to the prescribed reading course. We commend for a more accurate study of the Scriptures, the Bible Circle Quarterly. We respectfully ask all pastors to see that their Junior Leagues purchase "The Juvenile Library."

We heartily endorse the movement to hold a summer institute at Emory and Henry College, Rev. J. A. Early having been appointed by this board to work with others in making the necessary arrangements for a pleasant profit to every Epworth Leaguer who may attend.

We pray your loyal support of every department of Epworth League work, believing that many of our young people may be nourished through this organization.

P. L. COBB, Chairman.

J. R. BROWN, Secretary pro tem.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE.

"The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath." The giving to the Lord of one-seventh of our time, is mandatory and rational. The Sabbath should be so kept as to benefit man and glorify God. The command to keep the Sabbath was hedged about by the traditions of the Pharisees. There were many grievous and burdensome restrictions. We are now threatened with undue laxness. In many places of our country there is only a nominal Sabbath. In the South we have had, until recent years, a quiet Sabbath. Gradually the Sabbath is losing its sanctity, and is being secularized. Some members of the Church lend their influence to such desecration. They patronize railroads, livery stables and street cars for business or pleasure, and do that often during the hour of religious services. There is danger of legalism and literalism. The spirit of Sabbath observance should always be maintained. We can not afford to observe the letter to the neglect of the spirit. The Church should stand firmly by the Sabbath. The press and pulpit should unitedly attack all invasions of its sanctity, and arrest its desecrations. Let us as members of this Conference earnestly contend for the safety and sanctity of the Christian Sabbath.

J. L. PRATER, Chairman.

COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT.

Your Committee of Management, appointed to superintend the raising and expenditure of $77,000, for the better equipment of Emory and Henry College, report as follows:

There has been secured to date:

1. For Agent's Salary, 16 months .....	$ 2,000 00
2. In Notes .....	54,312 50
3. In Subscriptions .....	5,550 00
Total .....	$76,364 00

There has been expended to date:

1. For Agent's Salary, 16 months .....	$ 2,000 00
2. For traveling expenses of Agent .....	450 00
3. For Emory and Henry College buildings and water works .....	10,765 38
Total .....	$12,215 38

In completing the work committed to us three things are necessary, namely: First, closing up with cash or notes the $5,550.00 now existing as subscriptions; second, the securing of an additional amount sufficient to cover all expenses, so as to leave $77,000.00 to invest as originally intended; which amount, calculating expenses as rendered to date, would be $3,086.00; third, converting all into cash and advising with the trustees as to its expenditure.

For the success achieved we are indebted to our financial agent, Rev. J. O. Straley; and his continuance as agent of Emory and Henry College until this fund is secured in cash seems to us a necessity. We therefore request that his appointment for the year shall include the duty of completing this work. When $75,000.00 has been secured in cash, or marketable securities, the $25,000.00 promised by Mr. Andrew Carnegie becomes available.

L. L. H. CARLOCK, Chairman.

J. A. BURBOW.

J. W. PERRY.

R. G. WATERHOUSE.

Jas. O. Straley, Financial Agent of Emory and Henry College submits the following report:

To amount of Notes sent L. L. H. Carlock .....	$61,420 00
To amount of Cash sent L. L. H. Carlock (this includes agents' salary) .....	2,834 00
To amount of Notes and Cash on hand .....	2,335 00
To amount of Bonds and Cash in hands of Dr. Waterhouse .....	3,775 00
To amount of Valid Subscriptions .....	5,550 00
To amount of Traveling Expenses .....	450 00
Total .....	$76,364 00

BOARD OF EDUCATION.

We rejoice in the manifold evidences of the awakening of the entire nation to the value and importance of education. At no time in the history of our country have educational institutions received such attention and support from the individual and the state. We furthermore rejoice that this spirit of sympathy and support is shared by our Holston people who have made possible the plan for rebuilding Emory and Henry College and have filled some, if not all, our Conference Schools with the largest home patronage in their history.

We ought to esteem it a privilege no less than a duty to support our Methodist Schools, for it is manifestly the design of God, the Author of all truth, that in the training of the mind and the heart, true education and true religion, should go hand in hand in the development of all the goodness and greatness of which humanity is capable. Education is a very bulwark of strength to religion. One century ago only 8 per cent. of the students in the Colleges of the nation were even disposed to a religious life; at present 52 per cent. are members of the Church. It is noteworthy that the missionary spirit is nowhere more intense than in colleges and universities. In our Conference Colleges a far larger proportion of students are religious while annually many go from them to our mission fields at home and abroad. In some of our Holston Colleges there are at every session revivals of religion that often result in the conversion of practically the entire student body. It is the policy of this Board to encourage the revival spirit in them and to insist that the teaching force shall be distinctively and positively Christian.

While it is our particular concern to maintain schools of higher grade distinctively religious in tone, our attitude to the public schools is sympathetic for it is to them we must look for the education of the masses of our people. We recommend that our preachers visit these schools and co-operate wherever practicable, with Boards of Trustees in the selection of Christian teachers for them.

The General Board has fixed the Education Extension as for our Conference at $1,710. This assessment deserves special consideration inasmuch as one of its purposes is to place the Educational work of the C. M. E. Church largely under the friendly supervision of our General Board of Education and thus protecting the negro from imbibing fanatical ideas from those who understand neither him nor his needs, and which are alike hurtful to him and obnoxious to us.

Of even greater importance is another object of this fund, that of bringing an education within reach of the poorer people in the more needy territory of our Church, by assistance in establishing and maintaining Mission Schools, where any boy or girl can obtain both moral and intellectual training. We have the assurance of the Committee representing the General Board that they recognize our needs in Holston, and we feel sure of their disposition to help us.

It gives us pleasure to report that the Vanderbilt Correspondence School has met with great favor. More than one thousand students were enrolled in its various courses last year. We urge the undergraduates of the Conference to take the Correspondence Course, and we earnestly commend its work to the favorable consideration of all our people. From the report of the Conference Colleges and Academies submitted to us we present the following facts as to their present condition:

	Teachers.	Pupils last yr.	Debt.	Insurance.	Value Prop.
Emory and Henry .....	10	192	$ 7,500	$27,000	$125,000
Martha Washington .....	23	198	22,000	25,000	80,000
Sullins .....	28	332	24,000	25,000	125,000
Centenary .....	20	203	11,500	12,500	80,000
Princeton Col. Ins. ....	5	120	....	....	10,000
Jonesville Institute .....	6	170	....	6,000	16,000
Russell Academy .....	7	145	4,500	10,000	20,000
Pryor Institute .....	6	198	2,000	5,000	30,000
Pikeville Training School .....	3	126	750	....	7,000

Sullins College has increased its teaching force by eight and it is gratifying to note an increase of more than one hundred pupils enrolled.

We call special attention to the record of Centenary College during the year just closed. In the middle of the school year, visited by a destructive fire which consumed her main building, it was regarded at the time as a misfortune, if not a calamity. However, without pause, and with commendable zeal, the authorities of the institution, with the citizens of Cleveland and friends elsewhere, began to plan with wisdom and execute with energy, so that now a larger, handsomer and more commodious building adorns her campus, making possible a larger enrollment and the addition of departments of study that mean much to her future, and this, too, with a remaining indebtedness less than before her destructive visitation. We recommend that the authorities of this institution be permitted to employ a financial agent for the liquidation of the debt and for additional equipment.

Martha Washington College has made great progress and notwithstanding additional dormitories secured by placing a third story on the main building, and other additions, she is in need of more room in order to accommodate her patronage. We recommend that E. F. Kahle be appointed Commissioner of Education and financial agent of this institution in order to pay off the indebtedness and meet the conditions of an offer made by Mr. Andrew Carnegie for the erection of a new building that will accommodate a hundred girls.

Emory and Henry College has a larger enrollment than at any time since the civil war; two new buildings are nearing completion, and the movement to raise $75,000 in order to secure $25,000 from Mr. Andrew Carnegie, under the agency of Rev. J. O. Straley, has met with such success that the authorities in charge are proceeding with the plans for enlargement.

Brother Straley deserves the gratitude of the Conference for his faith in undertaking and his untiring zeal in accomplishing this great task and we recommend that he be retained in official connection with the movement for reconstruction.

By action of your Board, its executive committee is charged with authority to co-operate with the Board of Missions in maintaining a mission school at Hiwassee College, provided that board acquires the lease of the plant there and inaugurates the enterprise in accordance with representations which have been made to us. The chairman of this board has been authorized to arrange for and to hold a Summer Institute for preachers and lay workers, conjointly with the Boards of Missions, Sunday Schools and Epworth Leagues, subject to the approval of the Conference.

This Board feels that the secondary schools under its care deserve special commendation for their faithful work with insufficient means and under other unfavorable circumstances. We regret our inability to give them immediate financial assistance. We have taken action looking to joint meetings of their Boards of Trustees and the Executive Committee of this Board with a view to more sympathetic relations and for devising means for relieving them of debt.

We recommend that our Conference assessment for education be fixed at $5,000; also that J. W. Helvey and W. L. Killian be appointed as students at Emory and Henry College. We request you to set aside Wednesday night of each annual Conference session as an educational anniversary; also that you authorize J. W. Repass and J. A. H. Shuler to confer with the presidents of our Conference Colleges and Academies, and name and publish in the Annual the Boards of Visitors for such as are entitled to them. We apportion the Educational Assessment as follows:

BOARD OF MISSIONS.

We gratefully acknowledge the blessings of God on our work at home and abroad during the past year. Our general Secretaries report an increase in the foreign fields of 881 members, and an unusual interest in our work in the Orient. Sunday School pupils have increased 1,325 and 102 new congregations were organized. For the first time in the history of the Church the amount collected on assessments exceeds the assessment itself, and there has been a total increase in contributions of $51,370.

We note, with pleasure, the effort that is being made to increase the circulation of "Go Forward," and the hearty response which the effort is receiving from the Church. We would urge all our pastors to make a diligent effort to place this excellent periodical in the homes of all our people. A committee was appointed by the General Board of Missions to prepare an appeal to the Church, asking for one-half million dollars for Missions next year. This would be an increase of $100,000. The proportion allotted to our Conference would be about $3,000, or sixty (60) shares of $50 each. Let us pray and work to the accomplishment of the desired end.

We especially direct attention to the station plan, as set forth in the annual report of the Board of Missions, page No. 168, item No. 2, and we urge our Charges and Districts to undertake these specials.

We look with great favor on the Laymen's Missionary Movement so auspiciously launched September 17 and 18 in the city of Knoxville, Tenn. Steps were taken for the holding of a large meeting which will be held in the city of Chattanooga, Tenn., some time in the month of April next, to be attended by 1,000 delegates. We congratulate our Conference on securing in our midst both these great meetings, and with confidence we expect that great good shall come out of them, to us and to the whole Church.

The Missionary Training School at Nashville, Tenn., is doing much to provide the Church with trained workers. We urge our preachers and people everywhere to select competent persons, and encourage them to take advantage of the training which this school affords.

We would urge also upon the young people the importance of Mission study classes. The knowledge of the facts of Missions is fundamental to the intelligent interest in the work.

One year ago, acting under the law enacted by the General Conference, we established the office of Missionary Evangelist, and selected J. B. Ward as our representative. The results of his work demonstrated both the wisdom of the office and our selection of the man to fill it. During the year he has had, in the meetings which he held, more than 600 conversions, 400 accessions to the Church, and raised approximately $2,000 for the support of our Board. Prompted by the experience of the past year, we have decided to place two evangelists in the field, and nominated to you for recommendation to the appointment J. B. Ward and D. V. York. These Missionary evangelists are to work under the direction of the executive committee of the Conference Board of Missions.

It shall be their duty to conduct protracted meetings for pastors of our Conference, preach special Missionary sermons, deliver Missionary lectures and addresses, hold institutes in the interest of Missions, distribute Missionary literature, acting as special agent for "Go Forward," and the books and pamphlets relating to the work of our Charges, receive contributions for Missions, and take collections for the Conference Board of Missions, which collections are to be credited as a surplus to the Charge in which they are taken, and not used to pay assessments.

The Board of Missions shall pay their expenses and salaries fixed by the Board in monthly installments on draft of the Secretary to whom they shall report monthly in writing, touching such items as the executive committee may require.

They shall transmit all money received by them to the Treasurer of the Conference Board of Missions after deducting their necessary expense for travel, together with a statement of the amount so deducted.

We recommend J. W. Perry for appointment as Conference Missionary secretary. We desire to call attention also to by-laws No. 6 and No. 8, which as revised, read as follows:

No. 6: The Board shall not appropriate at its annual meeting more than 90 per cent of the collection for domestic Missions during the year ended, so that a reserve may be kept on hand to pay early drafts, the expenses of the Board, and meet emergencies; an emergency is something which could not reasonably have been foreseen before the annual meeting.

No. 8: The Board will decline to make appropriations in the absence of satisfactory information, and in order to obtain this information will insist on the blanks furnished by the Board, being filled by the Presiding Elder for new Missions, and by the Stewards and Presiding Elder of Charges to be continued, and returned to the Secretary.

The tardiness of the Pastors in spending in moneys collected during the past year came very near producing serious embarrassment; but for the large collections sent in early in the year by the Conference Evangelist, we should have been under the necessity of borrowing money to pay the drafts of our Missionaries. We, therefore, urge again that the collections for Missions be taken early in the year, and sent at once to the Treasurer.

The following action was taken in response to a paper submitted to the Board of Missions from the Trustees of Hiwassee College and overtures from the Conference Board of Education: "Resolved, That we look with favor upon the proposition to establish Missionary Training Schools at Hiwassee College and elsewhere if possible, and if at our mid-year meeting it shall be made apparent that the surplus accruing from the collections taken by our evangelists will be sufficient, we pledge ourselves to make an appropriation sufficient at the least to pay the salary of the President of Hiwassee College, and to consider such other enterprises as may seem feasible."

We have appointed S. B. Vaught to represent us in arranging for and conducting a summer Institute for Christian Workers, if the other Boards shall join in such a movement. S. T. Senter has been elected Assistant Secretary, and pastors will report to and receive drafts from him.

The General Board have asked us for $12,100. The work enterprised by this Board cannot be maintained with less than $10,000. These sums we have apportioned to the several districts as follows:

	Foreign.	Home.
1. Chattanooga .....	$1,250 00	$1,000 00

MEMOIRS.

JAMES MAHONEY.

Few men have lived among us who have wrought better than James Mahoney. Through an eventful life of almost four score years, no stain or blemish could be found to mar his character. His work was that of a consecrated minister of the gospel of Jesus Christ. Conferring not with "flesh and blood," he went forth at the bidding of his Church to hard and trying fields of labor. Oftentimes his moves were long and expensive, but no murmur escaped his lips. He adjusted himself to the new surroundings and made the people know that he was their pastor and they were his flock.

His preaching was plain and practical, and resulted in leading many souls to Christ. Many of our most faithful ministers in this Conference were converted under his ministry or encouraged to take up the great work of preaching the gospel to dying men by this humble servant of God. If we were to lift out of our midst the direct influence of this good man, we would find an army gone and our ranks in the ministry broken.

He was a true son of the Southland. He was born in Washington county, Tenn., December 10, 1828; converted August 19, 1846, and joined the Methodist Episcopal Church, South; licensed to exhort March 8, 1851, and licensed to preach August 6, 1852; ordained deacon October 26, 1856; joined the Holston Conference at Abingdon, Va., October, 1859; ordained elder October 21, 1860, at Asheville, N. C.

He began his itinerant ministry when our nation was troubled, and manhood was tried. James Mahoney's love for the Southland and the Southern cause was never challenged. For it he carried scars to his grave. He could say with the apostles: "I have received stripes in my Master's cause." And though this came to him, no harsh words fell from his lips, for he knew how the passions of men were stirred by war.

He was an honest man, in thought, purpose, and life. Such a stern virtue gives a man prominence anywhere. A marked characteristic of his life was love for his brethren. Always sympathetic and kind, the young preachers loved him, and his comrades in years honored him. One of his brethren who stood shoulder to shoulder with him in the Conference said at his burial: "James Mahoney carried his own burdens and bore the burdens of others." What a eulogy! He was brave, honest, true, and would have been great when "knightwood was in flower."

When not quite twenty years old he married Miss Maria McCall, who journeyed with him for fifty-eight years, and fell on sleep. To them were born nine children—John A., Thomas F., Mrs. M. E. Chandler, Mrs. S. C. Waugh, Mrs. R. V. Mallory, Misses Cynthia, Ellen and Laura, and one daughter who died in infancy.

With his family to care for and educate he traveled the following circuits: Elizabethton, Tenn., 1859-60; St. Clair, Tenn., 1860-62; Newport, Tenn., 1862-67; Webster, N. C., 1867-69; Newport, Tenn., 1869-71; St. Clair, Tenn., 1871-72; Newport, Tenn., 1872-73; Sulphur Springs, N. C., 1873-74; Independence, Va., 1874-76; Elk Creek, Va., 1876-79; Estillville, Va., 1879-82; Jefferson, N. C., 1882-85; Independence, Va., 1885-89; Sharon Springs, Va., 1889-93; Hillsville, Va., 1893-97; Bristol Circuit, 1897-1901.

At the close of his forty-second year in the Conference he was given a superannuated relation. He bought a home at Wallace, Va., where he had lived four years during his last pastorate. Here he spent his last days, and was buried. There was no cloud in the eventide, for in the blessed assurance of the endless life he fell on sleep. Out from our midst has gone a prince in Israel.

MRS. M. J. CARICO.

Mary F., daughter of Monroe and Betty Leonard, was born on June 17, 1881, in Grayson County, Va.; was married to Major J. Carrico, Jan. 19, 1905; died Sept. 25, 1907. She professed religion when only about twelve years old. She joined the Christian Church—the church of her parents. She had intended to join the M. E. Church, South, when at her old home this fall, but Providence changed her plans and took her to the Church triumphant. She was a true wife and mother. This heart-broken preacher says that she urged him to join the Holston Conference, that she was willing to brave whatever hardships might come into the itinerant's life.

She was devoted to the cause of Christ, telling her preacher husband that she was praying for his success in winning souls for Christ. She was a patient sufferer during her illness. She was ready to go, although she was only about 26 years old. She often spoke of her departure from the body. The day that she died she was happy all day. Thus ended the life of an obedient daughter, a devoted, loving wife, and the happy mother of the little baby boy. The writer was often in their home, and can testify to her many virtues.

JNO. B. CARNES.

JOSEPH B. DAVIS.

Joseph B. Davis, son of Jas. W. and Lucy Davis, was born in Smyth County, Va., Dec. 11, 1833. He died July 6, 1907. He was married to Miss Godsey, of Scott County, Virginia. His wife lived about two years and died at Independence, Va.

Brother Davis was blessed with Christian parents, who trained him in early life to love and fear God. He had a high conception of the Christian life. He was converted under the ministry of Rev. E. W. Moore, at Bethany, Washington County, Va. He was educated at Emory and Henry College and was licensed to preach the Gospel in 1869. He was admitted into the Holston Conference in 1874, and was ordained deacon the same year by Bishop D. S. Doggett at Asheville, N. C. He was ordained Elder at Abingdon in 1887 by Bishop McTyeire.

As a preacher, Brother Davis was thoughtful and practical. His fields of labor were always hard, but not a murmur escaped his lips. We find in his writings that he often consecrated himself and all that he had to God and His service. He also says: "I will follow the directions of the Holy Spirit in all I do and say." He devoted much time to reading the Bible and prayer. He was faithful to attend all the services of his Church. He was spiritually minded. He lived a consecrated life. It was his delight and joy to hear of the success of the Kingdom of God. He was scrupulously honest. He wrote in his journal: "I will deal honestly with all and demand the same of others, and I will give my church the preference." His neighbors all loved him and testify to the good life he lived and the good he did.

Brother Davis bequeathed $75 to the work of Domestic Missions in the Holston Conference. His death was unexpected—he died of hemorrhage of the lungs. He sleeps in the cemetery at Emory and Henry College.

CHARLES H. FOGLEMAN.

Charles H. Fogleman, son of David and Lucy Fogleman, was born in Russell County, Va., April 15, 1875. He was converted and joined the M. E. Church, South, under the ministry of Rev. T. F. Glenn in September, 1892. He was licensed to preach in the summer of 1893 (probably). He was admitted on trial into the Holston Conference in October, 1902. His first charge was the Gate City Circuit; his second charge, junior preacher with Dr. Hearon at Lebanon. In the spring of 1904 he was put in charge of Tacoma. His third charge was the Cripple Creek Circuit; his fourth, Bourne Memorial, Radford; his fifth, Gary and Pageton. From Cleveland, Tenn., he went promptly to his charge and entered upon his work for a successful year. His health became precarious soon thereafter. He came home Christmas with the hope of recuperating his run-down constitution. Later he took up his regular routine of pastoral work. Several cases of typhoid fever having developed, he visited and cared for them until he had to succumb. On finding himself declining, he came home. Somewhat disheartened, he became despondent. He felt that his important charge demanded his presence and attention, and at the same time that he could be better cared for at home, among relatives and friends. What was thought to be a mild case of typhoid fever developed into the malignant form. Three doctors gave him treatment; but the disease was too far advanced for medical skill, and he grew worse until the end came. Brother Fogleman was a young man of good ability. He had acquired a good degree of practical skill in building churches and in pastoral work. During his sickness he sang, prayed and talked. Feeling at times that he could not get well, he expressed himself as ready to go and exhorted others to meet him in heaven.

He sang with a clear voice, "Will There Be Any Stars in My Crown?" He called upon all around him to meet him in heaven. He said, "If I cannot get well and live here, I can go to heaven to live."

He gave an unconverted brother an especial talk, and asked him to meet him up yonder. His neighbors speak well of him, and regret very much his departure. He said so many things, and spoke at least once as if face to face with the Master, saying, "Jesus, Jesus," beckoning with his hand to the one addressed. He was an Odd Fellow, a Woodman, and probably a Mason. He did not let his relation to these orders hinder his pastoral work, but used his connection with them to facilitate his acquaintance and association with his fellow-men.

He died April 9, 1907, at the home of his parents, in Russell County, Va. Having crossed the river, he leaves a father, a mother, two brothers and four sisters on this side, and has joined a little brother on the other side. That little brother may have been the one with whom he seemed in communion during his sickness.

"Heaven now retains our treasures,
Earth the lonely casket keeps,
And the sunshine long to linger
Where our sainted brother sleeps."

Farewell, brother, until we meet again.

S. T. M. McPHERSON.

MRS. J. M. ROMANS.

Mary Ann Romans was born in Smyth County, Va., July 2, 1838, and died at her home near Marion, Va., Oct. 15, 1906. She professed religion and joined the Methodist Church in the fourteenth year of her age, under the ministry of Rev. J. H. Brunner, and for more than fifty years lived a consistent Christian life, so all her neighbors say.

She was married to Rev. J. M. Romans, Oct. 15, 1857. To them was born eleven children—eight sons and three daughters. She was a faithful wife and mother, and did what she could to make the world better. During Brother Roman's itinerant life, she remained on their little farm and took care of the children and their home. She had been in poor health for several years, but four months before her death she was stricken with paralysis, and was almost helpless, but patient, and often rejoiced in the love of God. So she passed away to be ever with the Lord."

MRS. J. D. McALISTER.

Mrs. Sarah Bruce McAlister, wife of our brother, J. D. McAlister, came to her "release" April 23, 1907. She was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. S. Bruce of Wytheville. She was born at Abingdon, Nov. 12, 1876. She had generous opportunities for development and had thoroughly profited by them. She was educated at the Woman's College at Lynchburg and had traveled extensively in her own country and abroad. But beyond all academic training more than the graceful accomplishment of a wide observation, she bore the polish of a splendid home, and the rich harvest of Christian virtue and willing discipline of the Methodist Church.

She was seriously ill at the home of her parents for more than a month, and all the skill of physicians and the tender ministration of friends could not stay the hand of death. In our solicitude we lingered at the throne of the God of all grace, trusting that the "angel with healing in his wings" would come to the rescue. But God's favor came in the guise of mystery, as it often does, and she is gone, and her husband and parents are left crushed and dazed. Her young life was devoted to the Church; from her earliest youth she was a consistent and helpful member. Aug. 30, 1906, she was married to Rev. J. D. McAlister. She was peculiarly adapted to the delicate offices that belong to a preacher's home, and especially a home of orphaned children. She was reared amid environments of unusual comfort and competency, and those who did not know her nature wondered that she should resign the leisure and stability of such conditions and assume the responsibility and deprivations of the itinerancy; but the few knew that it was the promptings of a sanctified love. I shall always be glad that I was permitted to enjoy the hospitality of that preacher's home. I never saw such all-round adaptations. The husband showed her the deference due the true wife, and the children that due the true mother. She was the heart center of the home and without fiat or rule or effort, except in that divine orbit that true love always makes, all revolved round her. I felt constrained to tell her that she made a "good mother." She thanked me demurely, as if it were so natural and commonplace that it was not worthy of observation. The children loved her and found in her warm heart and tender ministry that which has gone out of their lives, and now they are bereaved of a mother again. And the husband—how hopelessly he leans on the broad bosom of God! Very piteous to me is the wail of our brother over his broken home. He had such capacity for its enjoyment, it promised so much in counsel and comfort to him, and so much in wise and warm tutelage of his children. "It was such a dream of perfect happiness to me," he said; and now it has vanished.

"But we part not as those who have no hope." In her life and from her lips she left unquestionable testimony of her destiny. As if in timely anti-pation, days before the end came, she put her arms about the neck of her distressed mother and told her, lest she should pass away in a state of unconsciousness, that she wanted her to know that it was "all right."

Across the intervening waste of death
Comes a voice from lips of light;
Midst vanished dreams and blasted hopes,
It brings its tidings, "All is right."
All seems so wrong and dark and dead;
But God is love and God is might;
Look up and listen! Everywhere
The message seeks you, "All is right."
Some day will break in radiant joy
The morning of another night,
And face to face twin spirits find,
In fading mystery, "All is right."
